TEACHERS ARE PAID ENOUGH

So Says W. C. Sheely in Address of Welcome to County Teachers.
University Man Follows and Takes Issue. The Addresses.

At the opening session of the fifty fifth annual institute of the teachers of Adams County on Monday W. C. Sheely, Esq., who made the address of welcome made two rather startling statements: first that the teachers of this county are not underpaid, and second that the profession of school teaching is not a noble one.

Mr. Sheely said that the teachers were receiving fully as much as they would receive in any other profession and gave a number of reasons why he did not consider the profession especially noble. He said that the older a teacher becomes the more difficult he finds it to get and hold a position. He spoke of the trials of the work and other features. Mr. Sheely prefaced these remarks with a much enjoyed play on the names of the various schools in the county. He also spoke entertainingly of the old time institutes.

Prof. L. Dale Crunkleton, principal of the Littlestown schools, made the response and said in part:

"It gives me great pleasure to respond to the welcome we have just received. I am sure the teachers of Adams county very greatly appreciate the expression of welcome and friendliness extended to us and am also certain that the same feeling exists on the part of the teachers toward the people of Gettysburg.

"I hope nothing may be said or done to change the good opinion we have formed but that this Institute will be one of the most pleasant we have yet had.

"As teachers, however, let us remember that the primary aim is not pleasure. The state has not expended this money to give us a week's entertainment nor to afford a holiday. It expects a return for its money and that expectation is to be fulfilled in the increased efficiency of our teaching force.

"I notice that this is the Institute of the Teachers of Adams County, not the State's Institute, nor the County Superintendent's, but the Teachers' Institute. Its success or failure, therefore, depends upon the attitude of the teachers toward it.

"Teachers can contribute to its success by their presence. Secondly, they can be punctual. Lastly, we can adopt the student attitude. By that I mean, we can make our minds receptive. Come expecting to receive something, show your interest and enthusiasm, and you will receive something.

"Let us all work together and I am sure this Institute will be one of the most successful as well as the most pleasant we have yet attended."

The next speaker was Dr. A. Dun can Vocum, of the Department of Pedagogy, of the University of Pennsylvania, who took issue with Mr. Sheely's statements and claimed that the teachers were not paid sufficiently. He also claimed that the most efficient teachers could not be secured until the pay was sufficient. Dr. Vocum then dwelt upon some of the lessons to be learned from the "old school."

Prof. John K. Stewart, of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School at Shippensburg, gave an address on Abraham Lincoln which received very close attention. He treated the subject as Man, Magistrate and Martyr.

Dr. Charles C. Miller, of Lima, Ohio, occupied the last period of the afternoon session. He spoke of the vast steps in present day progress, referring especially to modern and future methods of travel.

Monday evening Rev. John Merritt Driver delivered a lecture on "The Supremacy of the Anglo Saxon Race." The lecture was very largely attended and the audience gave their close attention for over two hours. Miss Mary G. Emmert, of New Oxford, sang several songs which were much enjoyed.

TUESDAY MORNING

This morning, Rev. L. Dow Ott, conducted the devotional exercises. The first address was made by Superintendent R. B. Teitrick, of the State Department of Public Instruction. His subject was, "A Law of Teaching." He said that "the teacher must know what he would teach." Dr. Miller followed with a lecture on "The Great Naval Battles," and the remainder of the morning was devoted to section work.

HOOK WORM IS LOSING GROUND

In Gettysburg Public Schools. Fewer Cases of Tardiness during the Past Month. Big Decrease in Colored School.

The hook worm is losing its hold in Gettysburg's public schools, the number of cases of tardiness having decreased during the last month and we are informed that most of the cases are confined to a few families. Prof. Burgoon suggests that parents take this matter in charge and assist the school authorities in having the pupils at school on time.

The second month of school there were 390 cases of tardiness while the third month had only 385. A decrease of 40 was noted in the colored school alone. The enrollment the third month was 596 against 589 for the preceding month and the average attendance 557 is a record of 551.

The following is the report of the various schools for the past month the figures in order representing the number enrolled, average attendance, percentage of attendance, number present every day and the number of cases of tardiness:

SAYS HE TOOK ANOTHER'S TEAM

Lower End Man Loses Team at Conewago Chapel Festival and Finds it in Hanover. Took it by Mistake.

On Saturday evening James Murren, of near Mt. Rock, Adams County, drove to Conewago Chapel to attend a festival. When ready to start home he found his horse and buggy missing. Officers were notified of the missing team, and the officers telephoned and telegraphed in all directions, supposing the team had been stolen. On Sunday morning John Newman, who resides in Hanover, found a horse and buggy standing on the road near his home. The horse was blanketed and showed evidences of having been driven hard. Mr. Newman placed the animal in his stable, and fed and watered it, after which he proceeded to make inquiries as to the ownership of the stray team.

Mr. Murren was in Hanover at the same time in search of his property, and in a short time the owner was in possession of his team.

The story of the team in question as related by Edward Baker, of Hanover, who removed the team from Conewago Chapel and drove to Hanover is about as follows: Edward Baker, Harry Brindle and Roy Noel, three young men hired a team from a Hanover liveryman on Saturday evening and drove to Conewago Chapel, to attend the festival. According to young Baker's story, he, when ready to return home, was unable to find his associates; after waiting quite a while he concluded that the other boys had gone, and he decided to return home alone. He untied the horse he thought was the one they had driven to the festival and returned to Hanover, when he discovered he had a different team.

Young Baker was so astonished and scared, when finding his mistake, that he jumped from the buggy and left the animal to wander at will.

THRILLING RUNAWAY

A horse owned by Amos Dutten, of Mt. Pleasant township, near Brushy, hitched to a runaway, ran away from in front of the Hanover cattle yards Sunday about 2 p. m., and ran on the Western Maryland Railroad track from the main office building of the company to High street extended in Hanover, where he left the railroad track and ran out the street and to the edge of McSherrystown before being caught. The runaway resulted in no damage whatever.

A young man named Krug, accompanied by four other boys in a runaway, followed the runaway team as far as the power house, where one of the hind wheels collapsed and put them out of the running. The boys fell from the vehicle when the wheel collapsed, but nobody was hurt.

BRILLIANT AMERICAN VICTORIES

"Modern history told in a modern way" describes Lyman H. Howe's reproduction of the dash for the North Pole and the Aeroplane Races in France to be presented in the Walter Theatre on Wednesday, December 1. To watch Americans win the polar prize while another carries off the big prize for his sensational conquest of the air in France, are views calculated to stir the pride of the most sluggish American. Both historical events are told in pictures that are equally historic.

FIRE WARDENS FOR COUNTY

Several Fire Wardens Appointed in Adams County and More are to Follow. Amount to Pay Allowed by the State.

State Forestry Commissioner Robert S. Conklin has appointed two fire wardens for this county and will later name more.

The district wardens are allowed pay at the rate of 25 cents an hour while employed at fires; the assistant wardens 20 cents an hour and those employed to fight fires 15 cents an hour. The state officials concur in the general belief that the compensation is too small, but that it is expected that the next state legislature will increase the stipend, owing to the necessity of having wardens of the highest possible grade.

The act which established a system of fire wardens for the preservation of the forests of the commonwealth gives every borough and township in this county protection from forest or wild-land fires. A fire warden may go into any district in which he is appointed.

He has authority to compel men to go to fires, whether or not they wish, unless their excuse is satisfactory to him. Commissioner Conklin says that his department has had only two cases where men refused to perform the duty, when asked, and in one case the warden placed a citizen under arrest.

The wardens appointed in Adams county are as follows:

Franklin township, District Wardens, A. Strasbaugh, Orrtanna, No. 2; F. Edward Hall, Orrtanna, No. 2.

Menallen township, District Wardens, Peter Beamer, Biglerville, No. 2; Assistant, Wm J. Stover, Biglerville, No. 1.

BARLOW

Barlow, Nov. 30.—On Sunday evening at Mount Joy Rev. Mr. Stockslager gave a very able report of the Laymen's Missionary Convention held at Harrisburg last week. The purpose of the convention was to arouse more enthusiasm among the lay members of the church in the cause of missions.

On last Friday evening, Bessie, daughter of Mr. E. S. Kelley was hurt by being pressed against the wall of the stable by one of the horses, which had torn loose. At present she is getting along as well as can be expected.

The schools of this place are closed this week on account of Institute at Gettysburg which all the teachers are supposed to attend.

Quite a number of our people attended the institute held at McCurdy's on Friday evening.

The "squeal of the porker" can now be heard all over the county.

He was removed to a hospital in Baltimore for medical attention. It is understood that Captain Stebbins' injuries consist of a broken collar bone and other minor injuries. TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

TUESDAY EVENING

Walter Cluxton in "Her American Husband." Mr. Cluxton is one of those men who believe in doing things well. With this in view he first went to England to study the art of acting, and during his six years' stay in that country became associated with Mr. Beerbohm Tree of His Majesty's Theatre, London, and Mr. Edward Terry of Terry's Theatre in the Strand. In America he has been singularly successful, playing leading parts with Miss Nance O'Neil, Miss Margaret Weyerly, and Miss Henrietta Crossman, also with "Piff, Paff, Pounf," the popular Casino Theatre success, in which he sang the principal baritone role in Mr. Whitney's all star cast. Theatre goes throughout the entire U. S. A. and Canada will remember vividly his remarkable performance of the messenger in "A Message from Mars," which he played for two years, winning extraordinary praise from press and public from coast to coast. But a word must be said for the man himself. He is an artist of high ideals and endeavor, rating among his friends and admirers many celebrities of today.

FHMOUS PIECE OF MASONRY

Pennsylvania has a famous piece of masonry in Adams county. It is a culvert underlying the Western Maryland railroad tracks, with the tracks some 40 feet above the arch of the culvert. The culvert is a keystone arch with foundations resting upon timbers sunk 80 feet into the ground. It was built in 1836 by the late A. G. Nevins, of Waynesboro, as a part of the old Tape Worm Railroad, which was under construction at that time. No better proof of its value can be had than the fact that it has stood for 73 years without the necessity of a single repair.

OVERDO IT.

Showing How One May Get Too Much of a Good Thing.

Old Michael O'Hoolahan was walking in the vale of Avoca one hot afternoon, and he came to a spring. It was crystal pure. The sand it bubbled out of was as white as snow. Rainbow mists hung over it in the sunshine.

Old Michael knelt down and took a drink, and then, feeling remarkably refreshed, he turned homeward. Though he didn't know it, the spring in the vale of Avoca was the real fountain of youth, and it had lifted thirty years from his bent shoulders, and he was an outstepping, handsome lad again.
So, of course, when he got in the house his wife didn't know him. He looked in the glass at himself, cut a caper, and then he said:

"Shure, Kathleen, 'twas the blessed spring I drank from in the vale of Avoca. Glory be, it's made me young again! Run, darlint, run for yer life!
Ye can't miss it for the rainbow mists that float above it. It'll take yer fat away and yer lameness, and when ye come back ye'll be the Kathleen I known when we were courtin'."

So Kathleen ran, and Michael lit his pipe and waited for her. But she didn't come back. He waited and waited. Then on toward dusk he hurried to the vale.

No Kathleen did he see anywhere, but the wall of a babe's voice weeping brought him through the dark to the spring, and sitting there on the grass was a little baby girl crying as if her heart would break.

"What's happened ye, acushla?" says Michael.

"Don't ye know me?" says the child wringing her hands.

"Faith an' I do not," says Michael.

"Who are ye?"

"I'm yer wife," sobs the baby.

"My wife?" cries Michael.

"Yes," says the baby. "I'm afther drinkin' too much of the wather."

Perseverance.

The tendency to persevere, to persist in spite of hindrances, discouragements and impossibilities—it is this that in all things distinguishes the strong soul from the weak.—Thomas Carlyle.

Free Child's Remedy

What mother is not looking for something that will help her children in the little ills of life, something for the stomach trouble and the bowel trouble? Long ago she probably has become convinced that a child cannot readily swallow a pill or a tablet, and that to "break them in half and crush them" is an annoyance; that usually they work too drastically, and are nauseating and too powerful for the little one's stomach.
Any mother who will take the trouble of sending her name and address can obtain a free sample bottle of a remedy that thousands of other mothers are using and now paying for. This remedy is Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the offer of a free trial is open to any mother who has not yet used it. Having used it and convinced yourself that it is what you want, you can obtain it in the future of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others do. Use it for the most stubborn constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach
and such complaints with a guarantee that it will cure.

It is undoubtedly a great family remedy, as it is adapted to all ages, being mild and pleasant to take and yet thoroughly effective. It is especially the ideal remedy for children and women and old folks, who need something pure, mild and natural. It has the advantage of being a thorough laxative and yet contains no harmful ingredients. It is a most valuable remedy for the most stubborn constipation, indigestion, liver
trouble, sick headache, sour stomach
and such complaints with a guarantee
that it will cure.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail.
For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postcard or otherwise. For further request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 621 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

BIG SHAKE-UP IN THE NAVY

A Sweeping Reorganization to Begin Tomorrow.

LINE OFFICERS SUPREME

Advocates of a General Staff For Government of the Navy Triumphs.
Secretary Meyer Appoints Officers to Act as His Aides—Bureaus of Construction and Equipment Abolished.

Washington, Nov. 30.—A sweeping reorganization of the naval establishment of the United States will be begun on Dec. 1. Practically the whole reorganization scheme will be put into operation without additional legislation by congress.

It is evident from the new naval regulations that the advocates of the principle of establishing a general staff for the government of the navy have been triumphant. While it was explained officially that the officers who are to serve as aides to the secretary of the navy in his administration of the reorganized establishment are to have no supervisory or executive power, but will be limited strictly to advisory functions, it is apparent that the claims of the line to supreme authority in all matters affecting the operation, control and construction of the fleet have been conceded by Secretary of the Navy Meyer.

Board of Construction Abolished.
The board of construction is to be abolished and hereafter the work of this bureau is to be performed by the existing general board in conjunction with one of the secretaries of the navy's new aides, assisted by officers serving with the fleet.

The bureau of equipment will be abolished also. There seems to be no further ground for complaint against existing conditions by line officers who have held that sea-going members of the commissioned personnel, exercising positive rank and command, were the proper persons to control not only the operation but the building of the fleet.

Secretary Meyer announced the appointment of the officers who will form his advisory staff and who will have the last say in matters which come before the secretary for final action from the present bureaus who heretofore have carried out the departmental administration. These officers, all of the line, are to be the "aides" mentioned.

Rear Admiral Richard Wainwright, who commands the third division of the Atlantic fleet, is to be aide for operations and management.
Rear Admiral William P. Potter, who is chief of the bureau of navigation, is to be aide for personnel.
Rear Admiral William Swift, who is commandant of the Boston navy yard, is to be aide for material.

Captain Aaron Ward, who is president of the board of inspection and survey, is to be aide for inspection.

The Principal Changes.
The principal features of the reorganization are as follows:
The creation of an advisory council of four officers of rank and experience to act as advisors to the secre-

SUGAR TRUST MEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Jury to Try Graft Case is Nearly Completed.

ONE DEFENDANT IS ILL

Trial of Jean Voelker Detached From Others—Defendants Claim Public's Mind Has Been Inflamed by Newspapers and Statements of Government Prosecutors.

New York, Nov. 30.—The trial of James F. Bendoragel, Oliver Spitzer and four of the five sugar trust weighers, who are under indictment, began in the criminal branch of the United States circuit court before Judge James L. Martin, of Vermont. So much time was taken up in arguments for a demurrer by counsel for the defendants and by a motion to quash the indictments that when the court adjourned the jury was not complete.

It was evident from the line of questioning adopted by the defense in its examination of the jurymen that no small amount of importance is attached to the influence on the public mind of newspaper and magazine articles and of the published statements of Henry L. Stimson, special prosecutor for the government. Also the very fact that the government's interests are presented by a prosecutor other than the United States district attorney was emphasized by the defendants' lawyers.

Judge Martin cleared up this point, however, when he said whether the government was especially anxious to convict the defendants or not the court and the jury were not to allow that

JAMES F. BENDORAGEL.

fact to make a difference in their hearing of the case. Judge Martin added his belief that the government did not have especial anxiety in the present trial. His statement followed a question submitted to a juror by Clarence K. Lexow, of counsel for the defendants, which formulated the suggestion that the government's specially employed counsel might influence him.

Mr. Stimson was on his feet at once to declare that he had been brought into the case because it was a continuance of work begun by him before he relinquished the office of United States district attorney last April. All the defendants were in court except Jean M. Voelker, who is under treatment at a hospital. In addition to Bendoragel and Spitzer were Thomas K.
Keefe, Patrick J. Hennessy, John R.
Coyle and Edward A. Boyle. Bendoragel is the former cashier of the Williamsburg Sugar Refining company's plant, and Spitzer is the former dock superintendent of the same concern.

Twenty-seven prospective jurors presented sufficient excuses for relief from duty. Mr. Stimson, with his assistant, W. T. Denison, moved that the defendants be called and asked to plead as soon as the sitting of jurors was completed. Henry M. Cochrane, appearing for the indicted weighers, moved that the trial of Voelker be agreed to by Mr. Stimson on the condition that the customary legal proof should be submitted. A plea of not guilty was then interposed for all the defendants.

A jury was finally selected which settled the government's representative, and for a few minutes it looked as if a panel had been completed.
Counsel for the defendants challenged one of the jurors peremptorily.
Judge Martin said that he saw no reason why they should be kept together, and he allowed the eleven to go away, with the suggestion that they suffer themselves not to be talked to on the case by no one, and that they choose their reading with care.

I will give You A Magic Cup--With beauty in it.

Do you believe in face creams?
You know you do—the good kind. But why do even the best of them sometimes fail?

Because outward applications alone cannot give you new skin, any more than your nail polish can give you new finger nails.

But this BEAUTY CUP of mine, used with CROWN CREAM, will give you a new skin. Yes, truly, I mean just that.

Listen, every tiny blood vessel should be a pulsating fountain of health and beauty for the skin that covers it.
"Should be," I said. But if the delicate veins are clogged, and the countless pores are filled with impurities, the skin grows thick and the complexion muddied. Sores, blotches, blackheads and pimples are nature's own proof of the diseased conditions that come from neglect.

The HARLAN BEAUTY CUP gently massages the skin by its vacuum action, manipulating it so that not only the pores but its under portion is quickened and enriched with new life. The wonderful cleansing and beautifying effect of CROWN CREAM upon the surface is aided by this renewed activity of the blood vessels, so that impurities are dissolved and carried away, while new, fine and healthy tissue is formed, again proving that HEALTH IS BEAUTY.

Nothing else in all the world will get at the root of all the evils underlying lean, blotched and sallow skin. The

Harlan Beauty Cup, when used with CROWN CREAM will make a scrawny neck pretty, plump and fair, because it fills and freshens the skin cells, making the skin itself soft, smooth and velvety. It is the only true reviver, restorer and preserver for a dark and flabby skin.

You must try the BEAUTY CUP to know its worth. So for a limited time we shall give one free to every purchaser of the famous CROWN CREAM or CROWN COMPLEXION POWDER

CROWN CREAM consists of the most healing and nourishing ingredients for cellular tissues known to medical science. If you are so unfortunate as to have a rough, dry, oily, pimply, coarse, harsh, pallid, lifeless red complexion

—if you suffer from sunburn, windburn, tan, or other skin defects of face, neck, arms, bust or hands, CROWN CREAM, used as directed, will prove a delightful revelation to you. CROWN CREAM is unequaled as a skin food and tissue builder. We absolutely guarantee that it will not cause or promote the growth of hair, and that it will not cause any injurious effects. A single trial will convince you that it is without an equal.

CROWN COMPLEXION
POWDER is absolutely free from anything that could injure the skin. The face powder that imparts that velvety softness and removes the disfiguring gloss and perspiration marks from the face. It adheres to the skin and imparts a delightful fragrance and softness without clogging the pores. Its antiseptic qualities preserve and clear the complexion.

Crown Complexion Powder
comes in FLESH, WHITE, PINK and BRUNETTE tints, and while primarily intended for the face, its application is not limited and will be found well adapted to general toilet use.

A Good Witness.
Canon Purcell, vicar of Fowey, beloved by every one in Cornwall, was sitting down to dinner one day when a messenger arrived in breathless haste and was shown into the dining room, where he blurted out:

"Please, sir, Cap'n So-and-so is took something terrible and wants to know if you won't come at once."

The good vicar, supposing that some awful accident had happened and that there was need of consolation, left his dinner and sped down to a house by the water.

In the living room sat the "Cap'n," erect, motionless, at his own tea table. On his head reposed a mass of wet tea leaves; down his cheeks coursed rivulets of brown liquid.

He pointed to his wife: "She done it, sir. I said to myself, 'Folks 'll never believe it of her unless I can say the vicar saw it too.' So I sent for you!"

People's Drug Store Guarantees Mi-o-na

"I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. He gave me medicine for that. I took his treatment four weeks, didn't feel any better at the end of four weeks than I did when I commenced taking his medicine. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1898, I got a box of Mi-o-na. I took them that afternoon and next day and haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now, sleep good—that is something I haven't done in a number of years." Mrs. M. E. Maxwell, R. F. D. 2, Avoca, N. Y., June 9, 1899.

Mi-o-na in the form of a tablet is the best prescription for indigestion ever written. It relieves after dinner distress, belching of gas, foul breath, heartburn, etc., in five minutes.

It is guaranteed by People's Drug Store to permanently cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or any disease of the stomach or money back.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Gettysburg by People's Drug Store at 50 cents a large box. Test sample free from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

Our third aim is to insist on having good roads, which will increase the valuation of property from 100 to 300 per cent. A Persistent Benedict.

A forlorn looking specimen of a tramp stopped a banker on the street in New York and begged him to buy a plain ring which he held out. "I am starving, sir, and it's my wife's wedding ring," wailed the tramp as he burst into tears.

The banker looked at the tramp a second and then broke out furiously:

"IT'S MY WIFE'S WEDDING RING."

"You lying rascal! I bought your wife's wedding ring from you only last week to save you from starvation. You are an impostor!"

"Me an impostor!" cried the tramp in tones of indignation. "Not at all, sir. This ring belongs to my second wife. I was married again last Monday."

Her Next Role.

One of the wildest of Parisians, in a friend's box at the opera, was listening to "Thais," or, rather, trying to do so, for his hostess talked incessantly and dandened the music with her shrill voice. At the end of the opera she invited him to the next subscribers' night.

"With pleasure," replied he. "I have never heard you in 'Faust!'"

Needed Scratching.

They were having trouble in getting a jury to try a case in a county court. There had been a good deal of feeling aroused, and no one seemed particularly anxious to put himself on record for either side. One man hesitated a long time about stating the grounds on which he based his claim of exemption. Finally he said:

"Well, your honor, the truth of the matter is I have the itch!"

"Scratch him off," Mr. Clerk; scratch him off," instantly replied the judge.—Lippincott's.
